A large group of students, mostly young adults, are gathered in a well-lit hall or auditorium. They are posing for a group photo, with many making peace signs. The students are dressed in a variety of casual and semi-formal attire. The hall has a high ceiling with recessed lighting and a decorative border. The overall atmosphere is celebratory and positive.

A young man with dark hair and glasses, wearing a white t-shirt, is smiling broadly and making a heart shape with his hands. He is standing in front of a whiteboard. The whiteboard has the name 'Dennis' written on it in black marker. There are some other faint markings on the board, including 'all' and 's y'.

Student Dennis

I enjoy talking with people from different countries, including Filipino teachers. I still remember feeling very nervous about speaking English at first. In Taiwan, we rarely have opportunities to speak English. However, at Winning, I have many chances to practice and improve my English.

Why I chose Winning: it was because of the location—it's conveniently situated in the city center. I like that the teachers are very friendly, and I made many friends here, which was a wonderful experience for me. I specifically took IELTS classes, and I think I've improved a lot during my studies.
